

I Will Sing of My Redeemer

- 1 I will sing of my Redeemer
and his wondrous love to me;
On the cruel cross he suffered,
from the curse to set me free.
I will tell the wondrous story,
how my lost estate to save,
In his boundless love and mercy,
he the ransom freely gave.

- 2 I will sing of my Redeemer
and the hearts moved by his love;
Laying down a firm foundation
with true wisdom from above.
I will tell of loving labor
set on making his word known,
So our children and their children
surely know they are his own.

- 3 I will sing of my Redeemer
and his grace so richly poured
On our efforts to proclaim him,
that his name may be adored.
Sing his praise for countless blessings
on the course our feet have trod;
That in turn we render all things
to the glory of our God.

- 4 I will sing of my Redeemer
and his heavenly love for me;
He from death to life has brought me,
Son of God, with him to be.
Sing, O sing of my Redeemer!
with his blood he purchased me;
On the cross he sealed my pardon,
paid the debt, and made me free.

Text (st 1,4): Philip P. Bliss, 1876
Tune, Setting: Tracy Fedke, 2004

Within the context of our Savior's love (Stanzas 1 and 4), this hymn provides the opportunity – in this anniversary year – to reflect on and praise God for the conviction and faithful labor that made this ministry possible (stanza 2) and the many blessings that have been experienced over the years (stanza 3).